Behind every great book is a story with interesting characters and a powerful message. In this discussion we break down 11/22/63 by Stephen King in a detailed yet easy to read format. Jake Epping's otherwise ordinary life is taken for a wild ride as a friend convinces him to travel back to 1958. Their goal is nothing short of heroic: to stop the assassination of John F. Kennedy. The reader is engulfed into a thrilling world where Jake not only seeks to save the life of the world's most powerful man, but also falls in love with a beautiful librarian and experiences a simpler time. In typical Stephen King fashion, the story keeps readers on the edge of their seats while bringing up important philosophical and ethical dilemmas.
