2020 has occurred its height of great conflict such as Silent War. There are international organizations which are The Seekers who are defending the planet against Phantoms. Phantoms are considered their greatest threat. Rachel Moore will be obligated to do her job in bringing down these merciless extremists. However, it is not going to be easy.

Agent Moore will be in action together with Agent Michaels. Both of them have to endure pain in order to avoid the Phantom agents to assassinate or impersonate the Directors. Soon, more complex problems will arise as they strive to defend their protective territory.

They live to protect and serve peace; that has been their primary goal ever since. But somehow, things will fall into what they never expected. Is this the end of the guardians? Are they willing to sacrifice everything in order to do their job? How long will this war be?

In a world where life is a gift, and the constant enemies are just a piece of agent hostilities, will they ever find peace and live normally without extremities? Find out.
