Ring Out the Echoes: How I Lip Synced My Way Through High School Beverly Pangle Scott

Ring Out the Echoes is the story of a "middle of the pack" girl who attended Catholic high school during the 1960's, graduating in 1967, just as the "Summer of Love" began. It is full of cultural references which will appeal to all those who came of age during a time of relative innocence. All readers no matter their age will relate to the author's awkward and often humorous high school experiences. It is also a story of gratitude for faith, family, and friendship, which builds on the author's two prior books.
