Some truths are terrible. Some can break even the strongest connections.

A joint mission between JC1 and JC2 can only lead to trouble for Lieutenant Black and his team. Convinced JC1 is running surveillance on them, Black and his men close ranks as they go undercover at a nightclub where a psypath gang is trafficking psypaths into the Silent City. For Calyx Starr, this is an opportunity to escape to the psypath haven and leave the abuse he's suffered in Juxtapose City behind. For Black, it's his nightmare: the clashing of the psypath world with the future he has been working diligently to attain. When the mission goes horribly wrong and Calyx is faced with a terrible truth, is his love for Black strong enough to keep them together, or is the pull of life among his own kind too powerful for the empath resist?
