Don't expect the bad boy to stick around.

Rev

Fast cars. Fast women.

That's all I care about, and luckily I have plenty of both.

So why the hell am I so hung up on Winter Calloway?

She's uptight, snobby, and prissy. And she dresses straight out of a J. Crew catalogue. Worst of all, she's engaged to another man.

I should forget about her. But one night with her will never be enough.

Underneath that cardigan, her smokin' hot curves match her saucy attitude.

I'll do whatever it takes to make her all mine.

Winter

He's the kind of a guy I always avoided.

He's reckless, arrogant, and out of control.

Not to mention, I'm supposed to be getting married to the rich, stable man my mother always wanted for me.

So why am I drawn to the bad boy and blowing off my responsibilities?

Maybe it's his cocky charm and chiseled body. His touch has me craving for more. He lives life a hundred miles an hour, and for the first time I'm excited to be alive.

I can't help that I'm about to throw caution to the wind.

 This is Book 1 of the Desert Gryffins Trilogy. Each full-length novel focuses on one couple's love story with it's own HEA and no cheating. But the larger story arc of the Gryffin Brothers runs through the trilogy. For a limited time, I'm including my previous novel Marine for FREE since the characters will make an appearance in this trilogy. *****
