'Wiping Away the Tears' is the tragic story of a teacher and her incarcerated student who form a forbidden bond.

With the ink on her teaching certificate barely dry, Rory London attains a position teaching in an Adolescent Prison. Rory and Gage meet in her first classroom at a detention facility where Gage has been locked up for a gang killing he committed at the age of thirteen. The friendly relationship between the teacher and the sixteen-year-old gang member starts with the teacher's passionate crusade to teach the illiterate young man how to read. Soon, the teacher finds herself becoming consumed with a profound hunger to save him from his gang life. As the years pass and the young man grows into maturity, the relationship between the student and teacher escalates from enticing glances into an out of control love affair.
