I want you, Mina. The deepest core, the truth of you.

Mina was desperate; yesterday, she had realized even with her next paycheck, she wasn't going to make rent. So she had called Marcus and asked him to meet with her. Marcus was a well-off friend who had asked her out before. But Mina was always too busy and she didn't think of him in that way. True, the cowboy was handsome, but there was always something about him, like he was holding back. A perfect gentleman on the surface, but something darker lurks within.

After a pleasant dinner, Marcus bluntly asked what she was after. Caught off guard, Mina tactlessly blurted it out.

"I'll sleep with you if you help me."

Her offer rejected, an embarrassed Mina stood and made to leave. Then, her old friend makes a counter-offer that freezes her in her tracks.

What I want isn't only friendship or only sex. I want you, Mina. The deepest core, the truth of you. I want you to need me in your soul. And I won't take you unless you do.

In desperation, Mina had turned to an old friend for help and he'd made her an offer that would change her life forever.

If she could give herself to him, completely, in every way, with no restraint, then he would provide for her everything that she could possibly need. It went beyond the merely carnal; Marcus wanted more from her than just sex. In fact, he refused to even touch her until Mina truly needed him, mind, body, and soul.

Now, Mina acts as Mistress to the gorgeous ranch house and its beautiful servants. Each new experience stirring dark desires within her, as she struggles to come to grips with who she truly is, and what she truly wants.
