A Journey of Faith Michael James Doyle

This is the life story and family history of Michael James Doyle, educator, musician, and author, who describes in detail not only his life and experiences but also that of his children, parents, grandparents, great-grandparents, and great-great-grandparents in 450 pages of narrative that includes 787 pictures illustrating the lives of the families. He traces his lineage back to the early 1800s when his family immigrated from Ireland, England, and Scotland with some serving in the Civil War. Throughout the book, he shows the Lord's hand of blessing upon family members as they moved through life.
