Rock Notes (The Heartbeat Series Book 1) Renee Lee Fisher

Madison Tierney's a writer, whose husband, Thomas suddenly left her after 10 years; she is destroyed and now recently alone and divorced. She picks herself up slowly trying to restore her lost confidence and ability to love again. She follows her writing passion and ventures to follow a local band - Rolling Isaac's and write about them, raw and real and how they follow their dreams. Her book is titled ROCK NOTES.

Madison's ex wants back, and she is torn with the safe relationship she had with him and now new feelings that she is falling hard for the band's vocalist - Max Rand (Madison calls him Rand) who is so handsome, sexy and several years younger than she is.

Each moment with Rand is intense and unpredictable. Rand comes to her with baggage that he has tragically lost love and has no love left to give. He fills his time with groupies and late nights. There are many interruptions and assumptions along their journey.

While Madison is writing ROCK NOTES...somewhere along the way she begins to write her LOVE NOTES, her own personal love letters for Rand. Both Madison and Rand appear to be able to write their feelings on paper and lyrics effortlessly, but have a hard time conveying them to one another.

Will she return to the warm awaiting arms of her ex-husband who still is in love with her?

Or will there be a new beginning for Madison and Rand?

Can these two empty souls feel love again?

Or will what ignites between them simply fade away after the concert lights dim?
