Freedom's Forge: Striking the sparks of Liberty (Volume 1) Nelson A Abbac

Marooned in the new world by events out of his control, Scottish fugitive Daniel Ferguson takes refuge in the tinderbox of Colonial Boston. As the sparks of war are whipped in the chaos of 1773 New England Politics, the Scot finds the life he has lead turned upside down in this new land that King George grips fiercely with both hands, but may not be able to hold onto. Witnessing first hand the tumultuous events of the Boston Tea Party and the intrigues after, Daniel meets Paul Revere, silversmith and leader of the Sons of Liberty, the fledgling revolutionary group which welcomes the Scot as a new member, and he meets red-haired Megan, the sad eyed tavern maid with secrets of her own to keep.
