When a fighter's path crosses with a beautiful woman, he's positive the meeting will only end in her leaving his penthouse with sex hair and a smile - until life and the law steps in, inevitably linking their futures forever.

The accident that ended his fighting career wasn't enough to keep former heavyweight mixed martial arts champion Devon Lynk out of the sport. His new business, Chaine Lynk, an exclusive fighting company, has made him millions through illegal gambling. Happy with his life, he never suspected it could be his downfall . . . until the morning after leads to something so much more than he expected, and he's left with the weight of guilt and responsibility on his shoulders.

Veronica "Nic" Stacey made her way to Edmonton with the intention of starting life anew, but her first night in the city lands her in a stranger's bed and things don't quite go as planned. Waking up to find out her brother is in jail is one thing, but learning the man she slept with is also his boss is another matter altogether. With no knowledge of the city and nowhere to go, she's left taking the only help offered: Devon's.

With Chaine Lynk's doors closed and Devon facing possible jail time for his involvement, reality takes a front row seat. Love and lust intermingle as he comes to learn what his business and choices have cost the girl he wants most - now he just has to fix it. But is it already too late?
