Seduction of Suicide offers a new and radically different explanation of certain suicidal behavior - how suicide can be addictive. This is a powerful book, filled with dark, sometimes shocking, personal stories, but also with the incandescent light of hope. It presents a way out of hopelessness - a path towards recovery - including specific steps that suicidal people have taken to beat their compulsions. Many people who have attempted suicide will see themselves in the stories presented. Some who have mourned the loss of loved ones to suicide will find closure, easing their bewilderment and self-blame. Therapists who are baffled by cases that have not responded to treatment will, in this book, find a new and promising approach for their clients. "Something we have all seen but no one has described before now."-Patrick Carnes, Ph.D. Author, Out of the Shadows"new insights to those of us who have lost loved ones to suicide deaths."-Elsie & Jerry Weyrauch, Founders of SPAN USA (Suicide Prevention Advocacy Network)"A major achievement by one who has been there."-James T. Clemons, Ph.D. Editor, Children of Jonah, Personal Stories of Survivors of Suicide Attempts President, Organization for Attempters and Survivors of Suicide in Interfaith Services
