The Go Game (Willow Shepherd Book 1) Lucy Foster

Dorothy Caldwell might look like the girl next door, and she might not turn any heads, but that is her greatest advantage. She has spent her life erasing her past, changing her appearance and name, and running from city to city to stay hidden from the enemy her mother created years ago.

When a house explosion takes everything she holds dear, Dorothy must use a childhood training game to escape the enemy and search for the family she believes survived. She finds she must do it alone, because no one is as they seem, not her family, not the people who are supposed to help her, not even the cunning Alex Roman who Dorothy can't stop thinking about . . .
