The year is 1868 and burnt and scarred Pearl decides to become a Mail Order Bride.

Having lost her husband in a fire that left her scarred in more ways than one, Pearl Schawb takes a chance and heads for Texas, hoping for acceptance, sure love is too much to ask for.

Ephraim McGehu, her shy fiancé, does not mind her scars. But she mistakes his timidity for disgust and distances herself.

When a horse thief threatens to destroy everything, the two learn how to see each other as they truly are. But with everything from barn fires to bad memories standing in their way, can they learn to trust God and come to love each other?
