The story of Seed of Corn and the Bride is an African fairy tale, as told to me, by my mother from cradle bed up to my primary age.

Once upon a time in the land of Animals called Mananimals Kingdom, there lived a young corny Tortoise, he had a son, the young lazy and corny little Tortoise .

They live in the neighborhood where human also occupy, there was good communications between the animals and the human family.

The corny Tortoise took his son went for an adventure to use one seed of corn to marry the most beautify daughter of the farmer in the land of Mananimals.

But for his plans to work out, he has to eat with the spirits of the dead. But his son made the spirits to notice their presences and one of the son's hand was cut off.
