Jake is a baseball player that has been engrained in the sport his whole life. During his junior year, those dreams of a forever place in the history of the sport were dashed by poor performances and a post-game breakup that left him reeling. Unable to compete any longer, Jake becomes enraptured in his own cockiness and arrogance, clinging to the past like a warm blanket while challenging those around him. So, when he is chosen to participate in a school dance competition with the perpetual positive girl he had dismissed a year prior, he was annoyed and frustrated. But, this beautiful girl may be just what he needs to let go of the past and embrace his future. Could he open himself up and let this interesting girl in or would the pain of his past become too much to bear? Egos, lust, and love come together in one amazing night that could change his future forever...if he lets it.
