Pantheon Inspired Coffered Woven Scarf Marcia McCormack

The Pantheon in Rome is one of my favorite buildings and I've always been fascinated by the coffered ceiling. So I decided to create a woven scarf pattern in honor of this great building of antiquity. The pattern is written for weaving on a rigid heddle loom, using one pick-up stick to create the coffered effect. It looks more difficult than it is. If you can count picks, you can make this scarf!

For the warp, I used a DK weight silk bamboo commercial yarn, but you can use any DK or worsted weight yarn. For the weft, I used bulky weight yarn that I spun myself, but you can use any weight yarn of your choosing.

The length of this scarf is 40 inches/101.5 cm, because that's all the weft yarn I spun. If you'd like to weave a longer scarf, be sure to purchase enough yarn to complete your project.

As with all my patterns, I want you to have fun and end up with a great result. If you have any questions as you work on the design, please Email me at the address given on the pattern. I'm always ready to help my buyers!

Thank you!
