Maybe I like being a plaything...

Governor Dawson's daughter, Kenna, is innocent no more. She's come back from a night in Seattle with not one boyfriend, but two. Peter Slate and Jamie Malcolm are two best friends who love to share, and they want to take things to the next level with Kenna. All they ask is to maintain the trust in the precarious three-way relationship, which means everybody participates no matter what.

But when rumors arise that Jamie's business empire is built on drug money, Kenna only has one other person to turn to with her fears: Peter. And as the two get closer, they risk breaking the one rule that holds the trio together: No one-on-one sex.

Disclaimer: This 16,000 word novella contains mature language and explicit scenes. It is Part II of an erotic romance serial and contains a slight cliffhanger ending, but can be read as a standalone story. Intended for readers 18 and older.

Excerpt:

"Do you remember when we first kissed?" I said.

Peter blinked slowly. "I do."

I watched his fingers close tight over mine, and he gave me a gentle tug. It was like he was saying, "Come here," with his touch. I rose slowly from my chair, and he did the same. Then, he walked around the table and put his hands in my hair.

We kissed.

My mind raced as our tongues slid together. Kissing him felt natural and familiar, and I fell into our movements as easily as if it were a waltz I'd rehearsed for years. He pulled me through the apartment, never taking his lips off of mine. I got a brief glimpse of a short, narrow hallway, a doorway, and then a bed.

Peter pushed me down and climbed on top of me. My heart raced. I breathed in deeply and caught his scent, and my mind sent me back to that first moment with Peter and Jamie in the limo, the hotel room, the pool...
