The Best Guide For Men going Through Divorce Continues with Book 2

How Do You Take Care of Children in the Middle of a Divorce?

Book 2 of the groundbreaking three book series, Solo Fathers: A Navigation guide for Men, shows you how to get through a divorce and what you need to do to take care of kids.

Author, career military pilot, and divorced father, T.J. Carver explains in easy to read language how to get through a divorce. This book continues with the message in Book 1, but is focused on taking care of your children, attacking their unique challenges and issues they face when everything they know is suddenly turned upside down.

In this book you will learn:

- Ways to tell your kids
- The importance of a joint message
- Common communication issues and ways to resolve them
- Complete guide and understanding of custody and visitation
- How to perform a critical family analysis to determine the best arrangement for your kids
- Ways to do deep soul searching to determine best custody for you
- And Much More

If you thought nobody understands what you are going through, including the complications created with children in divorce, this book will not only show you that you are not alone, but will give you the tools to get through the divorce in a healthy and responsible way.

Because of Carver's background as a military pilot, each chapter is brief and contains several actionable takeaways, complete with a checklist on the last page of the chapter. This book isn't a collection of bland advice and feel good quotes. This book is a source of information and a toolbox to help you take care of yourself and your children as you enter the turbulent skies of divorce.

This is the perfect book for any man going through a divorce, no matter how hostile or peaceful the divorce is. Don't wait to get started learning how to ride out the storms of divorce while protecting your rights and your well-being.
