Damian Wyles has climbed his way to the top of Silicon Valley's tech security industry in a few short years, and he refuses to jeopardize his empire for any reason—even it means losing friends in the process. This learned stubbornness has led to a general lull in the handsome billionaire's life, but he'll take unhappiness over failure any day—as long as he's still filthy rich and making loads of money. Miserable and alone, the software mogul takes to drowning his sorrows in strong spirits at a hole-in-the-wall: the oldest therapy in the book.

Becca Hilton is just passing through the bar he's in, but something draws Damian to latch onto her before she can fly away. When he does, he discovers that their chemistry is too explosive to ignore, and he's pulled along on the most stunning ride of his life.

Unfortunately, wild rides often end with someone getting hurt, and Damian soon finds out that this pain is part of a plot against him—and it's coming from somewhere inside his circle.

Will Becca teach Damian's heart to let down its walls...or will their love crumble under the force of the unending war for wealth and power?
