The Friday Filmmakers Coffee Manual: How to Start Your Own Professional Filmmakers Group Anywhere Shereen Noon

For anyone ready to improve their film careers, The Friday Filmmakers Coffee Manual shows you how to easily and quickly start your own professional filmmakers group anywhere in the world. With the sample tools, flyers, sign in sheets, posting ideas, guidelines, and suggestions included in this short manual, anyone can immediately start a coffee for local professional filmmakers. These coffees are the beginning of valuable friendships that could last a lifetime and even inspire amazing television and film projects.

For professionals who are not actively working on a project or just need to take a break, Friday Filmmakers Coffee is a place to go hang out with other professionals and talk shop over coffee or beer. If enough people start their own coffees, wherever a filmmaker or industry professional travels, they could be hanging out with colleagues at a Friday Filmmaker Coffee...kind of like an AA meeting for filmmakers.

Film director and producer Shereen Noon enjoys uniting professional filmmakers everywhere. As the founder of INDEPENDENT WOMEN FILMMAKERS and co-founder of TANO MEDIA INSTITUTE, Noon recently started Friday Filmmakers Coffee which meets in Santa Fe and Albuquerque, New Mexico. What would it take for professionals to connect with and support each other at Friday Filmmakers Coffees in every city and town all over the world? How could it get any better than that?
