Baldwin County is terrorized by a masked gang that steals from passengers on a train that passes through each night, and a vigilante cowboy seeks revenge on the masked marauders for the death of his sister. Against this backdrop Chivonn Byrd meets Lane Hayes and falls in love with him as he rescues her more than once from a dangerous situation. As she grows more deeply in love, Chivonn learns that the man she desires has another side to his personality, and is shocked to learn he is playing a game that could cost him his life. But as Chivonn sings herself into Lane's heart and he rides majestically into hers, the wild side of a cowboy's world recedes into the background as a passion more profound takes over.
