Why Proverbial Girl?

As a mom of a teenage girl, I searched for a book or magazine that could teach her the things I felt all girls should know. Unfortunately, most of the books and magazines I found focused on how to get the boy of her dreams, how to apply make-up, or how to match a blouse with a cute skirt. Now don't get me wrong, I know a lot of girls are interested in guys, make-up and fashion, however, I didn't see how any of these topics would prepare her for the real world that is constantly changing around her.

It was in that moment that I knew God, our Father, was calling me to write this book. The only problem was I wasn't sure how.

One day, I received an unexpected call from Rev. Russ inviting me to join the After the Music Stops Family by writing a devotional for girls. Of course I was all in! What greater place to teach my daughter and other girls how to carry themselves than through Proverbs 31 which tells the story of the perfect young woman who is well-rounded and resourceful. Living life in this manner should be every young girl's ultimate goal.

Proverbial Girl is filled with funny, inspirational and challenging stories that are designed to teach you how to walk like a Proverbial Girl NOW!

The book of Titus encourages the older women to teach the younger women how to grow and walk in this life. So, just consider me your "Big Sister" for the next 31 days. You are not alone. Someone is praying for you and cheering you on as you read this book.

Moms, I encourage you to read this book, too. We are never too old to grow and learn. I know I still am.
