I have Codyitis, and like many other groupies, I have it bad. Problem is, Cody is the boy I grew up with. And he isn't a boy any more. He's a smoking-hot guitar god with a popular rock band. I'm looking forward to seeing him, but this time it's going to be different. It may be wrong, but I've wanted him forever and I'm going to act on it. I hope I'm not making a terrible mistake that will send him running from the forbidden passion burning in me. But I have to know if Cody wants me too, and I'm going to find out ... one way or another.
