"It would be clichéd of me to say that I have lived what seems to be a movie for the last four years, but the fact of the matter is that I have sat behind the director's chair and witnessed the film develop right before my eyes. And the starting cast, you may ask? That has been a group of students who have changed my life forever. During the last four years I have learned so much about myself, about others' struggles, and about life in general. And although it has not always been easy for me to embrace the reality in front of me, I must admit that it has made me grow professionally and personally to a level which is hard to explain in words. The students who have been part of this journey, and even the ones that stepped out, have made me a better Jose Quintero."
