Outsiders: Not One Of Us: Interviews with unique, extraordinary and misunderstood people (Volume 1) Garry Cook

Do you judge people by the way they look? Garry Cook's Outsiders is a series of interviews and portrait - photographs with the unique, unusual and misunderstood. This collection of profiles examines how we judge others through prejudice, appearance and ignorance. Travelling across several continents for this project, Cook has compiled a fascinating insight into human experience and behaviours, while also covering major social issues including religion, war, sex and paedophilia. Quotes from Outsiders: 'They came at us with spears crying 'argghhhh!' 'People see a Muslim woman and you can see all the word association flashing through their minds: Bin Laden, terrorism.' 'My Thai wife paid someone to push me off a third-storey balcony.' 'I was on fire but I couldn't see much, the flash had burned my eyes. Just thought I'm going to die.' 'If you're going to dedicate your life to serving yourself, and your lust, God hates you. That's what the Bible says.' 'I don't regret the relationships, only the sexual part of it.' 'Some of my friends in Israel, they don't see the Palestinians as humans.'
