Sage Carrigan never meant to be the other woman. Unfortunately, bronco rider Dawson O'Dell neglected to mention he was married the night he invited her to his bed after they'd both placed first in their rodeo events. When his wife walked in on them – Sage was deeply hurt and humiliated. After an accident in the ring the next day, Sage decides she's quitting the rodeo—and cowboys—to become a chocolatier in her hometown ranching community, Marietta, Montana. She's doing just fine, but then Dawson shows up—five years later, with a little girl in tow. He's here for the Copper Mountain Rodeo hoping to win big. But he's also got plans of settling down with his daughter and buying a house—the very same one that Sage has been dreaming about. He says he's here for her and he's making lots of promises. But can he keep them?
