The Dead Brother Club: A Memoir Coren Beck

In October 1988, thirteen year-old Coren Beck lost his older brother in a tragic accident. Shaken to the core, Coren finds a curious power in the grief that he can manipulate from others. He leverages that power into creating what he calls 'The Dead Brother Club'—a fictional hiding place where he can run from the grief that cripples him.

As Coren stumbles through the heart-wrenching reality of life without his brother, he goes on a journey through heartache, anger, addiction, and eventually, the soul searching realization of the purpose of his life.

'The Dead Brother Club' is the gripping true story of an adult tracing the emotional trauma that shaped him as a teen, and the spiritual hope that arose from the ashes of those troubled times.
