All Because of You: How could a stranger cause so much damage? Vivian Brooks

On the day of Nelly Morgan's wedding, everything was going off without a hitch. She had even forgotten the small fact that it was a rush wedding; her groom had a tendency to change his mind a lot. So when an attractive foreign stranger ruins everything by professing his love for Nelly in the church full of family and friends, she is completely stunned. She would never cheat. She's most trusting woman in the world, everybody knows that!

After failing to prove to her fiancée that she has always been faithful, Nelly develops a plan to make her wedding crasher admit that they are strangers. The only problem is...the wedding crasher is very positive they have met and they did fall in love. Nelly is sure the man is lying. She would remember if she had been in love before wouldn't she have? Wouldn't anybody?

Soon Nelly finds herself in the middle of a battle with her psychic sister in law, caught up in the middle of a string of robberies and a victim of a 'Cat-napping.' Still, she is as determined as ever to prove her love for her fiancée and the lies of a handsome foreigner.
