Come Monday night, Renee was back at her place and she was already missing Sophie terribly. She called her up and they talked for a while but that didn't help much as when she got off the phone she wanted to call her right back. She knew she was becoming obsessed with Sophie but there wasn't anything she could do about it. That was what she felt. It took her a while to go to sleep and once she did sleep, it was fitful at best. She kept waking up reaching for Sophie but the only thing in her arms was her pillow which was a poor substitute for Sophie's soft warm body. At about four in the morning she gave up, she went to the bathroom then took a shower to wake herself up. She got dressed and went toward work. She stopped at Ginger's Grill to get some breakfast. She wasn't real surprised to find Ian already there reading the morning paper.
