Adrenaline rushed through my veins. My heart beat fast as my body responded to his firm grasp. I ached for his touch despite it being incredibly wrong to feel that way about the man holding me captive.

I must distant myself from Vivian. Keeping her here would lead to each member of the gang demanding a turn with her since that was an unspoken rule amongst the Alpha Outlaws. And since I was reluctant to share her with anyone else, I had no choice but to let her go despite it killing me inside.

I didn't tell her my true reasons for sending her away because I felt she would do just about anything to stay by my side. Now I just hope that she never finds out the truth.

This is a standalone novella with no cliffhangers.
