Sustainable Development: Goals and Strategies Arnab Mandal

The United Nations Sustainable Development Summit 2015 was a historic one as it would be always remembered for giving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to the world. In next 15 years human development would be shaped globally by these goals. Today when the entire world is talking about sustainable development, it is important to understand various aspects of it. To significantly contribute to fill up the vacuum of a good useful book on the subject, the book has been published. In this book, Arnab Mandal examines why sustainable development strategy is important for SDGs and how the strategy is linked with the concept of Green Economy. This book would not only be found useful by academicians, researchers, college and university students, but it would also be able to provide substantial insights to policy makers, politicians, journalists, and development practitioners from developing countries.
