The Myth of Separation Between Church & State Dee Wampler

Despite the best efforts by Satan and the spiritual forces that rebel against God, "His truth is marching on." Dee Wampler does an outstanding job in presenting the truth, not only from his own words, but from the actual words of the leaders that formed the Constitution and this nation. The apostasy that the establishment clause provides for a separation of church and state, particularly at the state and local level, cannot be extrapolated by either the stated wording of the amendment or the intent of the framers. The attack on this "Christian nation" is an agenda set by godless activist judges who have, in fact, unconstitutionally exceeded the authority granted to them and stripped the American people of their legislative liberty. Wampler's work should sit prominently in the libraries of all genuine patriots.
