Erotic Fairy Tales: Lesbian In A Red Riding Hood (Williams's Erotic Fairy Tales Book 3) Alexis J. Williams

Red Rose Fleur is on a hike through the woods to visit her grandmother. A distressed dwarven princess runs into her, and she knows this will not be a regular vacation. After a lesbian threesome with a werewolf by the river, she finally arrives at her grandmother's house. Instead of Grandmother Rampion, there is the same female werewolf that she met by the river. Where has her beloved grandmother gone, and why would she leave just she gets there? She suspects the new werewolf is up to it, but she is just too lustful to throw an accusation.

This an erotic story intended for mature readers interested in reading about lesbian sex.

Excerpt:

“What long fingers you have.”

“All the better to rub you with.” Keisha’s fingers moved faster inside Red, and her breaths turned to moans. Pleasure went through her whole body as Keisha’s thumb rubbed her clit.

“What sweet lips you have.” Red gasped as she leaned toward Keisha’s face. Hot breath of the werewolf blew on her face.

“All the better to kiss you with.” Keisha’s soft lips mercifully touched against Red’s. Tongues writhed against each other, and they moaned into each other’s mouths. Red let her fingers lightly trace against Keisha’s smooth skin and then went around her waist. Soft curly hair touched her fingertips before she found Keisha’s wet center. She sucked almost painfully on Red’s tongue, and muffled moans came from within her.

Red was panting when they broke the kiss, and she was barely able to speak between moans. Keisha let out a wolvern growl and her dark eyes turned auburn. Red kissed lightly on Keisha’s chin before giving a final peck on her lips. “What a long tongue you have.”

“All the better to eat you with.” A smile curved Keisha’s lips.
